

Spiritual Memoir

Join me Saturday, July 15, 2017,
for an inspirational workshop experience.

In this workshop, learn how to write about your spiritual experiences using concrete, specific language. Discover the power of writing the daily moments of wonder, the dramatic occurrences that forever change lives, and the deep, gradual beliefs formed over time.

We'll also do a bit of writing and look at a sampling of published spiritual memoirs as examples of the depth and breadth of the genre.

I only have 12 slots. Sign up early!

Cost of the workshop is $55 and includes lunch.
